Topic: Psychological Defense Systems

While aspects in our charts seem to describe our natural response to events, such as openness or withdrawal, retreat or confrontation; they can also function as fault lines in the psyche, a tendency to react again and again in similar ways.

Part of the gift of astrology is the ability to identify overused patterns, and redirect our responses along other pathways in the chart. We will focus on the specific tensions carried by squares and oppositions.

Sat and Sun morning teas are included in the workshop fee.

The Workshop cost is $220 / or $200 conc
